ARRIVAL

The Holy Father is escorted to the carpet by Cardinal Egan.

SILENT PRAYER, CANDLE LIGHTING, AND PRAYER WITH BLESSING

The Holy Father kneels for a few moments of private prayer. He then lights a candle brought to him by an employee of the Port Authority.

PRAYER

The Holy Father:

O God of love, compassion, and healing, look on us, people of many different faiths and traditions,
who gather today at this site,
the scene of incredible violence and pain.

We ask you in your goodness to give eternal light and peace to all who died here—
the heroic first-responders:
our fire fighters, police officers, emergency service workers, and port authority personnel, along with all the innocent men and women who were victims of this tragedy simply because their work or service brought them here on September 11, 2001.

We ask you, in your compassion to bring healing to those who, because of their presence here that day, suffer from injuries and illness.
Heal, too, the pain of still-grieving families and all who lost loved ones in this tragedy.
Give them strength to continue their lives with courage and hope.

We are mindful as well
of those who suffered death, injury, and loss on the same day at the Pentagon and in Shanksville, Pennsylvania.
Our hearts are one with theirs
as our prayer embraces their pain and suffering.

God of peace, bring your peace to our violent world:
peace in the hearts of all men and women and peace among the nations of the earth.
Turn to your way of love those whose hearts and minds are consumed with hatred.

God of understanding, overwhelmed by the magnitude of this tragedy, we seek your light and guidance as we confront such terrible events.
Grant that those whose lives were spared may live so that the lives lost here may not have been lost in vain.
Comfort and console us,
strengthen us in hope,
and give us the wisdom and courage to work tirelessly for a world where true peace and love reign among nations and in the hearts of all.

At the conclusion of the prayer, the Holy Father is handed the aspergillum. He blesses the ground in all four directions.
